

2023 Members' Symposium 2023 | Exploring Trauma and Investigating Neurodiversity

REGISTER HERE

Click on each session tile for further information.

*Please note the following symposium program is subject to further development and change.

*Please note that Steam A, B and C will be recorded and made available on the on-demand program post event for the in-person attendees.

*Please note Steam A, B and C forms part of the virtual program for digital registrations.

Friday, May 19, 2023

	Stream A Trauma Plenary Hall 1 (Recorded)	Stream B Neurodiversity Plenary 2.3 (Recorded)	Stream C Neurodiversity Plenary 2.6 (Recorded)	Stream D Neurodiversity Room 1A	Immersive Education Trauma Zealandia
10:00 AM - 12:30 PM	Day 1 Registration open
12:30 PM - 1:30 PM	Welcome to New Zealand Mihi Whakatau
1:30 PM - 2:30 PM	Day 1 Opening Plenary Keynote Address Melinda Webber Cultural Trauma
2:30 PM - 3:00 PM	Activity break 1 Grab a snack from the APS 'Pantry'
3:00 PM - 4:00 PM	Session A1 Adding play therapy to your toolkit: enhancing engagement, emotional regulation and healing	Session B1 Autistic co-led autism research priorities for Aotearoa New Zealand	Session C1 Workshop Towards Best Practice for Supporting Neurodiverse Children who have Experienced Interpersonal Trauma	Session D1 Workshop Building neurotypicals' perspective-taking: a cross-cultural awareness approach to the double empathy problem
3:15 PM - 4:15 PM					Group 1 Guided tour of Zealandia
					Session E1 Presentation information
4:00 PM - 4:15 PM	Activity break 2 Grab a snack from the APS 'Pantry'
4:15 PM - 5:15 PM					Group 2 Guided tour of Zealandia
					Session E2 Presentation information
4:20 PM - 5:20 PM	Session A2 Trauma informed practice: Creating healing systems	Session B2 Systemic Racism in Psychology	Session C2 Workshop Neurodiversity affirming practice: What psychologists in therapeutic and educational contexts need to know	Session D2 Workshop continued
5:20 PM - 5:40 PM	Activity break 3 Grab a snack from the APS 'Pantry'
5:45 PM - 6:30 PM	Day 1 Closing Keynote Address Dr Jessica Paynter & Dr Kristyn Sommer How can we make therapy better for autistic people?
6:30 PM - 8:00 PM	Welcome reception

Saturday, May 20, 2023

	Stream A Trauma Plenary Hall 1 (Recorded)	Stream B Neurodiversity Plenary 2.3 (Recorded)	Stream C Mixed Topics Plenary 2.6 (Recorded)	Stream D Mixed Topics Room 1A	Immersive Education Cultural Trauma Te Wharawaka o Poneke
7:00 AM - 8:45 AM	Day 2 Registration open
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Day 2 Opening Plenary Keynote Address Kelleigh Ryan Intergenerational Resilience What do we know about IR from working with survivors of Intergenerational Trauma?
10:00 AM - 10:45 AM	Day 2 Morning tea
	Knowledge Hub Session 1 Hear the latest rapid research
10:45 AM - 11:45 AM	Session A3 Lateral violence and empowerment in young Indigenous populations across the CANZUS nations.	Session B3 Takiwatanga hiding in trauma: Finding the hidden colours of the spectrum	Session C3 1. Trauma Informed Care and its relevance with the APS Psychology 2. New Zealand Psychologists Board update	Session D3 Workshop Schema Therapy: The fundamentals for early-career psychologists and psychology registrars  PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A 3 HOUR WORKSHOP, COMMENCING AT 10:15 AM, CONCLUDING AT 1:15 PM
10:45 AM - 4:15 PM					Session E3 Immersive education cultural experience Across the five and half hours of this session, attendees will be placed in one of six groups. Through-out the day you'll participate in three different activities. 1. Walking tour of the local area hearing about Maori settlement, traditions and cultural issues 2. Education sessions looking at cultural trauma 3. Learning about the significance of the waka (canoe), the calls and paddle techniques and... weather permitting, head out onto Wellington Harbour to paddle the waka
11:45 AM - 12:00 PM	Activity break 4
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM	Session A4 1. Clinical Supervision of Trauma Psychologists: Considerations in establishing a professional supervisory framework 2. Intersectionality of Neurodiversity and Trauma in Offending Behaviour and Incarceration	Session B4 1. Understanding executive dysfunction to optimise assessment and treatment for ADHD and trauma 2. Congratulations! It's autism	Session C4 1. Co-designed transformation of an evidence-based social-emotional skills program for neurodivergent children 2. Cognitive fingerprints: A screening-tool that goes beyond outcome to identify neurodiverse traits	Session D4 Workshop continued  PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A 3 HOUR WORKSHOP, COMMENCING AT 10:15 AM, CONCLUDING AT 1:15 PM
1:00 PM - 2:00 PM	Day 2 Lunch break

	Knowledge Hub I Session 2 Hear the latest research
2:00 PM - 3:00 PM	Session A5 1. Moving towards transformative change when healing from intergenerational and historical trauma. 2. INTEGRATE: A novel CPTSD intervention targeting difficulties with disturbances in self-organization and improving functional outcomes.	Session B5 Acknowledging diversity in gender & sexuality improves research on wellbeing and help-seeking	Session C5 Unpacking collective trauma and privilege: Three journeys in feminist and community psychologies	Session D5 Workshop I Using functional analysis to guide your work with neurodivergent adolescents and adults  PLEASE NOTE THIS IS A 3 HOUR WORKSHOP, COMMENCING AT 2:00 PM, CONCLUDING AT 5:00 PM
3:00 PM - 3:15 PM	Activity break 5
3:15 PM - 4:15 PM	Session A6 1. Raranga: weaving together a workforce under stress 2. The Potential Impact of Intergenerational Trauma	Session B6 Risk and insurance, industry insight to mitigate your exposure. This presentation is intended for Psychologists who are based in Australia (conduct their professional services from Australia). Attendees have the chance to Win an Apple iPhone 14 (128gb) see entry conditions for further details https://business-insurance.aon.com.au/BIW/media/Business-insurance/pdf/Aon-prize-giveaway-entry-conditions.pdf (AON is a proud major sponsor of this event)	Session C6 TBC	Session D6 I Workshop continued
4:15 PM - 4:45 PM	Day 2 I Afternoon tea
	Knowledge Hub I Session 3 Hear the latest research
4:45 PM - 5:30 PM	Day 2 Closing Plenary I Keynote Address Prof Klaus M. Beier I The Sexual Trauma Pandemic - Prevention of Sexual Traumatization and Its Long-Term Consequences as an international challenge

Sunday, May 21, 2023

	Stream A I Plenary Hall 1 I Trauma (Recorded)	Stream B I Plenary 2.3 I Neurodiversity (Recorded)	Stream C I Plenary 2.6 I Mixed Topics (Recorded)	Stream D I Mixed Topics I Room 1A	Immersive Education I Mixed I Te Papa I Rangimarie Room
7:30 AM - 8:45 AM	Day 3 I Registration open
9:00 AM - 10:00 AM	Day 3 Opening Plenary I Keynote Address Margaret Ross I Psychedelic-Assisted Psychotherapy – Possibilities, problems, and the profound.
10:00 AM - 10:30 AM	Day 3 I Morning tea
	Knowledge Hub I Session 4 Hear the latest research
10:30 AM - 11:30 AM	Session A7 Can we treat PTSD better than we currently do?	Session B7 ADHD-informed practice for working with adults	Session C7 Creating a neurodiversity affirming autism assessment experience for our clients and families	Session D7 Workshop I Safer minds on the job - What reduces emergency service trauma?	Session E7 Pae Tata Pae Tawhiti: A trauma informed brief and early intervention framework.
					Te Papa educational and cultural experience I Guided tour 1
11:30 AM - 11:45 AM	Activity break 6
11:45 AM - 12:45 PM	Session A8 Supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander survivors of child sexual abuse	Session B8 1. Autistic adolescents' socioemotional bank: building capital; managing downturns; reaching bankruptcy; bouncing back. 2.TBC	Session C8 Sexuality, gender and wellbeing	Session D8 Workshop I Supporting tamariki using TeWhare Tapa Wha and Te Pikinga Ki Runga models	Session E8 ABI and Active+ case study: Improving access to community rehabilitation after traumatic brain injury

					Te Papa educational and cultural experience Guided tour 2
12:45 PM - 1:45 PM	Day 3 Lunch break
	Knowledge Hub Session 5 Hear the latest research
1:45 PM - 2:45 PM	Session A9 Integrating Suicide Prevention in Schools, Communities and Organisations - Implementation by Design. (LIVINGWORKS is a proud major sponsor of this event)	Session B9 1. Neurodiversity-affirming trauma therapy: understanding common schemas among autistic and ADHD people 2. Perceptions and values of climate change. Insights from Indigenous Australians: Literature review	Session C9 1. Te Pū: Uncovering and healing the seeds of intergenerational trauma within ancestry 2. Whakaora: Group EMDR in Aotearoa New Zealand	Session D9 Neurodiverse safe work: more than just noise-cancelling headphones	Session E9 The Complexity of Trauma – reflections on implications for Psychologists
					Te Papa educational and cultural experience Guided tour 3
3:00 PM - 4:00 PM	Closing plenary Keynote Address Conference close Dr Jade Le Grice Kei whea te kōmako e kō? Speaking into trauma and silenced subjectivities				