

‘ROUGH SEX’, ‘CHOKING’ AND STRANGULATION NATIONAL SYMPOSIUM

A cross-sector conversation about the rise in rough sex

Join the conversation...

‘Rough sex’ and ‘choking’ are on the rise in everyday sexual relationships. They are becoming normalised in contemporary movies, song lyrics, relationship advice and in mainstream pornography.

This trend raises challenging questions about the role of new sexual norms, the place of consent, patterns of sexual and intimate partner violence, and the grey areas in between.

This cross-sector national symposium will canvas the sociocultural, medical, criminological and legal issues associated with a rise in ‘rough sex’, ‘choking’ and strangulation.

FRIDAY, 29 NOVEMBER 2024

LOCATION: RUTHERFORD HOUSE,
PIPITEA CAMPUS, WELLINGTON

Go to QR code or click here
for tickets.

